

ERIC VANULAR

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Applied Science (B.A.Sc.) – Queen's University (Canada)

2011 – 2015

- Mechanical Engineering, Faculty of Applied Sciences
- Awarded the Principal's Scholarship (95%+ Average). Dean's Scholar, First Class Honours

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Management Consultant, KPMG LLP

2015 – 2017

- Responsible for leading strategy and operations transformation projects for Global 1000 organizations
- Experienced in developing complex quantitative, strategic, and financial analyses and models resulting in better business decisions, sustainability, and direct improvements on the bottom line
- Consistently building stronger client relationships and supporting external executive leadership groups

Co-Founder, Apollo Portal (Queen's Innovation Connector)

Summer 2015

- Co-founded and built an Equity Crowdfunding portal that was one of the first registered platforms in Canada empowering everyday people to invest in the projects and startups that they believe in
- Selected to take part in a startup accelerator program providing venture funding and incubation through the Queen's Innovation Connector Summer Initiative (QICSI)
- Completed entrepreneurship training from international faculty, entrepreneurs, and business experts

Summer Analyst, TransAlta Corporation

Summer 2014

- Conducted financial analysis, technical research, and preliminary business development initiatives relating to renewable power generation technologies that were presented to the TransAlta Investment Board
- Created financial models for the acquisition of several megawatt-scale renewable energy generation assets
- Performed economic research and gave presentations pertaining to emerging technologies

Founder & CEO, Sweet Jets Frozen Treats Company

Summer 2013

- Successfully founded, operated, managed, owned, and sold a mobile refreshment vehicle business
- Obtained sponsorship from the Ontario Government, as part of the 2013 Summer Company Program
- Received mentoring from community Chamber of Commerce leaders in business strategy, growth hacking, marketing, accounting, and financial management

Product Specialist, Eaton Corporation

Summer 2012

- Managed production of Power-Line 1/2/3 series residential panel boards (49.6% of annual revenue)
- Responsible for controlling inventory, ensuring quality standards, accounting, and financial reporting

RELEVANT SKILLS

- ✓ Comprehensive knowledge and experience using MS Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Visio, Project
- ✓ Proficient in web development and scientific programming with Python, JavaScript, MATLAB
- ✓ Comfortable using distributed working tools such as Slack, Skype, Basecamp, Trello, etc.
- ✓ Completion of Artificial Intelligence-related MOOCs - Machine Learning (Udacity)
- ✓ Fluent in English & Français